1. Although the chief of Usunchin Left Banner /118-55, 45-50, Silingol League/ is nominally cooperating with YUN Tse, he is merely playing a waiting game pending the arrival of more arms and ammunition from the Nationalists. Then he expects to launch an offensive (against YUN Tse).

25X1A6a

[REDACTED] Note: See 25X1A2g 25X1A2g 25X1A2g giving Selen Dorjy as the Nationalist appointed chief of Usunchin Left Banner and [REDACTED] giving To-erh-chi as the Chinese Communist appointed chief of Usunchin Left Banner. Also, see [REDACTED] reporting that Sorin Dorjy, secretary to Prince TE, and Hotoringa, Nationalist representative from Usunchin Left Banner went to Mukden to obtain aid from the Nationalists for Usunchin Right and Left Banners.

2. In January Erinchin Dorjy's men made a raid upon Peitzumiao and captured some arms and ammunition (amount unknown). They returned immediately to Shile Buriat Banner. When Erinchin Dorjy returns from Peiping, he is expected to take the offensive (against YUN Tse). Successful offensives by Erinchin Dorjy and the chief of Usunchin Left Banner will result in YUN Tse's forces being driven from Chahar, forcing them to join either Wulji Ochar or Asgan's right wing.

[REDACTED] Note: See 25X1A2g [REDACTED] for previous reports on Wulji Ochar and Asgan.

3. Since the troops of YUN Tse and Wulji Ochar do not fight each other, the boundary line between their forces is very fluid.

4. There are very few Chinese (Hans) left in YUN Tse's or Kulji Ochar's territories.
5. FU Tso-yi's forces control only those areas of Northern Chahar Province which have a predominantly Chinese (Han) population except for Habirga (115-31, 42-17) [which is predominantly Mongol].

6. Although he was embittered by his failure in Peiping [See 25X1A2g], Erinchin Dorjy obtained an interview with General FU Tso-yi which resulted in unexpected success [See 25X1A2g]. He obtained the interview through MA Han-san, then chief of the 2nd Department of the Ministry of National Defense. (Note: Called the Director of Peiping Civil Affairs Bureau by the Chinese press.) 25X1A6a

7. Erinchin Dorjy expected to leave Peiping for Dolonnor and Shile Buriat Banner on 4 April 1947, accompanied by a nephew who was educated in Germany, and taking with him the war material collected in Nationalist controlled territory in addition to a jeep and a Japanese truck bought in Peiping. FU Tso-yi, MA Han-san, and LI Tsung-jen (Director of the President's Peiping Headquarters) told Erinchin Dorjy that they have requested the Ministry of National Defense to supply him with 700 rifles and four jeeps. Erinchin Dorjy expected to be back in Peiping by May 1947 for the rifles.
